

Spring is here! We enjoyed a May Pole celebration the park. The weather was perfect.

We've been reading all around the room in groups, listening stations, and even to ourselves. We will send reading bags home for one more week. Then we'll start collecting them before school is out. Can you believe how fast time is moving along? And look how your children have grown!